

BEACH PARTY BOYS

BIOGRAPHY

When it comes to summer music there is no one like the Beach Boys and when it comes to tribute bands to bring you those Good Vibrations there is no other like BEACH PARTY BOYS! Their vocal harmonies, instrumentation and stage presence brings to life the very spirit of the Beach Boys themselves.

BEACH PARTY BOYS will take you on a Surfin' Safari in their Little Deuce Coupe and Surfin USA having Fun Fun Fun with California Girls while listening to I Get Around on your transistor radio with your Surfer Girl Barbra Ann!

BEACH PARTY BOYS has been written and adapted for theatres as the Story of the Beach Boys and also for concert venues and a night of dancing. Actor Fernando Curcione who plays Mike Love in the show also penned 'Oh That Summer Feeling' which was recorded in 1987 by the original Endless Summer. Other members include Guy Schryer who was part of the Kokomo Beach Band and Andrew Canning on bass guitar who has a striking resemblance to Brian Wilson himself. Jamie Shear on lead guitar who was musical director for many legends shows including a young Shania Twain. Rich Hamelin on rhythm guitar and keys has taken great care in vocally arranging all of the harmonies right from the Beach Boys themselves. If there ever was a Beach Boys super group this is it!

BEACH PARTY BOYS are available for corporate parties, casinos, fairs, exhibitions, and theatres.
