

LEGATO

BIOGRAPHY

The musical term Legato meaning "smooth and connected" is the perfect description for the classy and versatile duo featuring lead vocalist Krista Blondin and pianist/vocalist Cheryl Dickson-Neal.

While highlighting the smooth sounds of Pop, Jazz, Rock and Roll, Broadway and R&B favorites, their collaboration brings beautiful vocal harmonies and a passion for performing music that captivates their audiences time and time again.

Hamilton-based Pianist Cheryl Dickson-Neal has been entertaining live since 1987. Her natural musical gift is enhanced by ten years of Royal Conservatory training, a Bachelors Degree in Music (Honours Program) from McMaster University and an Honours Diploma in Commercial/Jazz Piano Performance from Mohawk College. Cheryl has performed at numerous weddings, corporate functions, private parties, festivals and theatrical shows and continues to be a favorite at the Sheraton Hotel in Hamilton where she has been performing for over ten years.

Krista Blondin's versatile vocals and lively stage presence has been enjoyed by audiences across the GTA and its surroundings for over a decade.
